

Our primary purpose in collecting personal information from you is to ensure the provision of high-quality products and services.

We may use the information we collect to:

- ensure the provision of high-quality member services;
- inform you about member services, updates and events;
- enable us to contact you to advise of schedule changes;
- invoice you for products and services;
- assist us in complying with legal and regulatory requirements;
- to support and assist Curl BC in delivering programs and services at the provincial level;
- to enable on-line payment services through a third party;
- provide you with information concerning the business operations of the Curling Centre.

We may use personal information about you in a non-personally identifiable manner to improve our offerings and customize our services.

As a matter of policy, we do not sell, rent or lease any of your personal information to third parties.
